Story:

■ Black Painter as the result of a cultural exchange provided and the original civilizations from the Arabic-speaking world. The picture played on the Rosetta 196 to BC, which has allowed the language of hieroglyphs using Greek translations and chiseled into the stone to decipher. As languages for Black Painter again Hieroglyphen were used from the Egyptian, as well as the Arabic, Latin and Greek. The basis is a black brush, which is reflected in the profession of an artist painting the guild.
